

American-Indian Flute

A ritual wind instrument with a magical sound!

This flute is quite easy to play. It fascinates listeners with its glissandi which you can create by blowing harder or softer. Its high standard of handcraft and its simple tuning enable even the beginner to improvise easily. The American Indian Flute is tuned to 5 notes pentatonic minor. The advanced player can create a sixth note, thus playing on a diatonic scale. You may learn with the help of the table of chords included with the Flute.
