

Door Harp

SITH100 Nils

SITH200 dark wood

The origin of the Door Harp is Finland. Traditionally it hangs at the door to offer the guest a harmonious sound while entering or leaving. Little wooden balls fixed with silk threads dance on the bronze strings of this lovely little instrument.

This Door Harp is made in Germany, hand carved from red Alder. The sound is light and soft.

Other models on request.